Content:
Opportunity List advertising is limited to postings regarding employment and practice information. Note: WOA reserves the right to edit and format content for organizational purposes and/or reader clarity, if necessary.

Placement:
WOA Website: Listings are placed on the WOA website for the duration of the advertising term (one year).

WOA Newsletter: Listings will appear in the WOA newsletter the month materials are received for the duration of the advertising term (one year).

Job opportunity listings are placed chronologically by date, with the most recently processed advertising materials appearing first. All submissions are subject to WOA formatting.

Payment:
Advertisers are required to send payment (credit card or check) with this form to the WOA office. No listing will be published without payment.

Acceptability:
All advertising is subject to acceptance by the WOA staff and board of directors. WOA reserves the right to limit the amount and content of ads.

Changes/Cancellations:
Advertisers are allowed to make changes to their listing once per month. Changes must be submitted in writing to the WOA office via email, mail, or fax. There will be no refunds if the position is filled/practice is sold before the end of the advertising term.
